

Nobel peace prize for Mr. K.?

Dallas, April 2.

A top Government intelligence expert said today that Mr. Khrushchev, the Soviet Prime Minister, was reported to be seeking the Nobel Peace Prize.

General C. P. Cabell, Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, told the Democratic Council on World Affairs: «I can tell you something which seems almost incredible. He (Mr. Khrushchev) is reported to have ordered an approach made soliciting a nomination for himself for the Nobel Peace Prize.. (Reuter).
